Companies like Kodak, Xerox and Bausch & Lomb give the Greater Rochester, NY region a rich tradition in Optics and Imaging. But did you know that the spectacular images the Mars Rover sent back to earth were taken through lenses made at Optimax Systems, Inc. in Rochester, NY? In all, Rochester has more than 50 businesses focused on Optics and Imaging — forward-looking companies who capitalize on our area's educated workforce, industry expertise and exceptional quality of life. So as you look to start-up, strengthen or expand your company, consider Rochester's key place in the history — and future — of Optics and Imaging.

It's time to take a closer look at Rochester, NY.
